Re: Planning & Zoning Commission

Dear Mr. Schmeling,

Please consider this letter as my letter of intent to retain my seat on the Planning and Zoning Commission. I have enjoyed my time serving Lake Havasu City in this capacity and hope to continue to do so. I would like to maintain my position as a planning and zoning commissioner for another term if elected to do so.

Please contact me if you have any questions or require further information.

Sincerely,

Mychal Gordon

Biography:

Mychal Gorden, R.L.A., Planner and Project Manager, has over ten years experience in land development, planning, and landscape architecture industries. Specifically in community planning and project coordination, environmental planning, residential and mixed use master planning, golf course design, neighborhood parks, streetscapes, project theming and branding, design guidelines, entitlements and residential landscape design (landscape planning, pool and hardscape design). Mychal's design experience includes the master planning of large-scale residential communities, golf courses, commercial and mixed use developments, neighborhood parks, and a vast array of residential projects. By working closely with the design team, consultants, and owners throughout the various stages of the development process, Mychal is able to keep the creative vision of the project in tact while fulfilling the goals of the project. Mychal has administered the complete development process for master planned residential communities from land and golf course planning to entitlement acquisition, environmental planning, detailed site planning, landscape design, community design guidelines, project theming and branding and construction administration. His ability to assist and oversee in all facets of the design and development process is key to leading a project from concept to completion.
